- Huddle (Volunteers Training Day): Saturday 21st July (10am to 4pm)
- Rally Prayer Night: Saturday 4th August (7pm to 10pm)

Advisors

Advisors are the first touch point after youth have become a Christian or recommit to faithfully follow Christ. As the bridge between that initial decision and further follow up to plug youth into a youth group or church, advisors play a crucial role in welcoming new Christians into the family and walking them through the gospel.

Volunteer duties description:

PRE-RALLY (before the day)

- Praying for youth attending leading up to Rally
- Attend Rally Huddle (21st July) where training will be provided
- Evangelism
- How to lead a youth to Christ
- How to plug a youth into a Church/Youth group

DURING RALLY

- Assist ushers/logistics people in light tasks
- Welcoming youth to Rally
- Talking to youth who have re-committed/become Christian for the first time
- Getting to know them and where they're at in life and helping them to not feel overwhelmed or awkward in the environment
- Taking them through the Gospel
- Taking down contact details
- Suggesting churches/youth groups they can become involved in
- Developing the beginnings of a friendship that hopefully becomes lifelong as they journey with Christ
- Guiding youth back out into auditorium after conversation
- Supplying youth with bible

POST RALLY

- Helping enter data for rally response forms
- Attend Rally After-party

Volunteer Benefits:

- Witnessing youth come to accept Jesus as their personal Lord and Saviour
- Being an integral part of a youth's journey to connect them to churches and youth groups
- Receiving training on evangelism and communicating to youth that you can bring back to your local church and other spheres of your life
- Meeting a community of people who are passionate about youth and evangelism

What we're looking for:

- You're a follower of Jesus
- You have a valid Safe Ministry Training certificate and WWCC ID
- Passionate about evangelism
- Have a heart for youth and able to connect with them
- Preferably have ministry experience
